READING IS THE MOST IMPORTANT SKILL

Miss Nicolosi Recommends

As you know, I love to read and I want to share the love of reading with you! This week, I recommend a book that is more suited for KS2, years 4-6. It is called The 1000 Year Old Boy by Ross Welford. If you love history, mystery and a bit of adventure, this book is for you! It is about a boy named Alfie Monk who has been alive for 1000 years.

After a tragic accident, he decides he no longer wants to live forever and sets out on a quest to free himself from the curse of immortality with the help of some unlikely friends.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Children should arrive at school at 8.30am.

Children that come regularly at 8.30am are making more progress in their reading. This extra 25 minutes of learning every day makes a difference. Please support your child by arriving on time.

Thank you

RECEPTION'S PARENT PICNIC

The Parent Picnic in Reception was EXCEPTIONAL.

It was so lovely to see parents reading alongside their children and the children were so proud that their parents were there.

Incredible leadership, organisation and team effort.

REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE

This week, ten children from our school joined Newham's Remembrance Day Service held at Central Park.

They listened to songs and poems. The children heard stories of local WW1 and WW2 heroes including Walter Tull.

They, like all Monaga's children, observed two minutes silence, as a sign of respect.

ATTENDANCE WINNERS

This week's attendance winners are

KS1: RR with 95.3%

KS2: 4N with 97.8%
